Events in coming months

MADE IN TOD / OPEN DAYS - We're opening ourselves up to the people of Tod as part of the Made in Tod extravaganza: May 8th and 9th. Open gardens, stalls, fun and frolics. See the map and details on the website.

INCREDIBLE EDIBLE PENNINE HOUSING ROADSHOW - Our first date with social housing landlord Pennine Housing 2000 is at Ashenhurst on Sunday May 17th, 12 noon to 3 pm. Read about their Incredible Edible initiative here.

REGULAR MEETINGS - Swap seeds and plants on May 17th at the Unitarian church, 2 pm. The regular schools meeting is on May 20th, 7:30 at the Golden Lion.

TOD SHOW TIME - Yes we'll be there on 20 June. Contact Marianne Sutcliffe if you're interested or can help.

STILL WAITING FOR A LOTTERY WIN - Will our bid for a Food Hub incorporating a fish farm at Tod High School be successful? We're still waiting to hear. If only it were on a scratch card. Meanwhile Nick has a mini aquaponics unit running, see it on an Open Day.

News

EGGSTRAVAGANZA - Our Every Egg Counts campaign continued with a Spring Festival at the Unitarian Church. Here's our own eggstraordinary photo gallery. And here's how the Tod News reported on us.

HEALTH CENTRE JOINS GROWING BODIES -

The new Health Centre have changed their planning consent. It's out with the prickly stuff. In with Incredibly Edible fruit trees - and an apothecary's garden! This has to be a healthy development.

ODD TOD BODS SEEK PRIZES - Our Breakthrough idea for spreading the word about local food is awaiting a verdict from the Sustainable Development Commission. And we're on the shortlist for the Community section of the Yorkshire Post Environment awards, to be presented May 7th. Results next month!
